

ECHO of Cape Cod

Christ is Counting on You

December 2014
Volume MMXXIXV, Issue 7

Mission: ECHO (Encountering Christ in Others) of Cape Cod is a Catholic, community-based experience initiated by a weekend retreat, focused on the living presence of Jesus Christ encountered in others and self. The ECHO program is directed toward the awakening and the development of a response to the three basic areas of Identity (Who am I?), Integrity (Where am I?), and Vocation (Where am I going?) as they are emerging in the lives of young people.

OUT LOUD - DISPATCH

Would you be the wind to blow me home
Would you be a dream
On the wings of a poem
And if we were walking through a crowd
Well you know I'd be proud

*If you call my name out loud
Do you suppose that I would come running
Do you suppose I'd come at all
I suppose I would*

And if we were walking
Down a dead end street
Would you be the one to let our eyes meet
Or would you just keep on walking
Down to the turn around
'cause you know I'd be proud

*If you call my name out loud
Do you suppose that I would come running
Do you suppose I'd come at all
I suppose I would*

And if I was gone from the land we know
Would be the dawn
And let your beauty still show
And if you were walking
And heard the cold night coming
Would you call my name
'cause you know I'd come running

PRAYERS

Many years ago the custom began of designating each Tuesday as ECHO Prayer Day to serve as a special reminder to the community to pray for each other and the ECHO program. We ask prayers for: Deacon Greg Beckel, Keith Blaquiere's relative, Sami Carey's friend and her mom, Ed Culhane, Cassie Doble, Pete Donahue, Chris Golden, Sister Dymphna Smith. For Joe Tierney and Judy Lyons as they prepare for ECHO 296 and 297. For Tom McManamon and Kathy Harmon as they discern for ECHO 298 and 299. For the deceased: Heather Adamson, John Bryant, Frank Coughlan, and Phil Studley.
